

One and only one movie must be associated with a ticket, but many tickets can be associated with the same movie(hopefully the movie sells out!). A customer doesnt necessarily need to buy a ticket or a concession, by all means they may have snuck their own food into the theater or on the other hand maybe they are just there for the good popcorn.